

Mystery

I am infinite;
you are finite.

Beyond all that you can know there is more.

It is My nature
to conceal what can be known for the person, purpose and time
when it is to be revealed.

Learn to live with mystery.

Mystery helps to cultivate humility in your life.

There is always more
to know and understand
about My ways and Me and about others
than you realize.

Embrace the humility of mystery,
and pride of knowledge
will not puff you up.

Mystery cultivates worship.
It calls for awe for the Holiness—that which is beyond and totally other than the limitations of human reasoning and logic.

Mystery tests your obedience to My direction
when you only know in part what My purposes are
for you at the moment.

Mystery invites faith.

I am able to do exceedingly abundantly beyond all that you can ask or think.

Faith in who I am beyond what you understand opens the door to the truths I have hidden for those who will seek Me with their whole heart.

Cease striving to know all things
as your security,
and rest in the assurance that I know all that pertains to you.

That which is most essential for you to know is hidden for you in Christ.

Pursue the knowledge of Him,
His person and His work.

Proverbs 25:2; Matthew 13:10-17; Ephesians 1:17-18;
I Corinthians 8:1; Colossians 1:17-18; 2:3

April/May 2002