

My Spirit

While My purposes are ever unfolding,
My nature does not change.
As I have been,
I AM
and I will be.
I am the Everlasting Father.
Jesus, the Christ, My Son,
is the same yesterday, today, and forever.
My Spirit is the Spirit of Truth that abides forever.
As it was in the created world,
so My Spirit is at work today.
For that which was in chaos,
the Spirit brooded upon the face of the waters
to bring definition and order.
Hovering intimately, the Spirit brought beauty, purpose, and purity.

As it was in the first person,
So My Spirit is at work today.
For into a body shaped from earth,
I breathed the breath of lives.
My Spirit as a breath brought natural,
human, divine, male and female life
into the person—fullness of lives.
As it was in the garden,
so My Spirit is at work today.
For the man and woman in fellowship with Me,
My Spirit came to them
in the cool (breeze) of the day.
In the gentle blowing of My Spirit
there was fellowship and communion with Me.
My Spirit comes to you this day in the intimacy of brooding, breathing, and blowing to order, fill and relate.
Where matters are confusing and unfocused,
welcome My Spirit to bring order.
When you are weary and empty,
seek My Spirit to fill you with life.
When you feel distant,
draw near and quiet your mind as you wait to hear the gentleness of His presence and wisdom.
I shall brood, breathe, and blow upon you.

Genesis 1:1-2; 2:7; 3:8;
Isaiah 6
John 14:17;
Ephesians 5:18;
Hebrews 13:8;
James 3:13,17
June/July 2004

